Environetics® Ranked in Top 25 of Los Angeles' Commercial Interior Design Firms for Tenth Straight Year

LOS ANGELES, Calif., November 18, 2008 – Environetics (www.environetics.com), a full-service interior architectural design and space-planning firm providing workspace solutions, has been named one of Los Angeles' Top 25 Commercial Interior Design Firms in 2008 by the Los Angeles Business Journal. This is the tenth consecutive year the firm has made The List.

“The loyalty of our clients and continued growth of our business confirms that our focus on building workplace environments steeped in the brand, core values and culture of our clients is the right approach,” said Rodney Stone, president of Environetics. “We are honored by this recognition and see it as a validation of our unwavering commitment to our vision.”

Environetics designs and builds office environments for a wide range of companies in the financial, entertainment, high tech and corporate markets. The firm has earned a reputation for its superior service, which is driven by a thorough understanding of its clients' needs and continuous communication. Its innovative work in green design has made it one of Southern California's most sought-after firms. Environetics' most notable clients include Fox Entertainment Group, Los Angeles Community College District, Trust Company of the West, Level 1 Entertainment, Insomniac Games, Fox Interactive Media, Macrovision and United Online.

One of the most widely read features of the LABJ is The List, which each week ranks the top businesses in a variety of industries throughout the year, and finally is compiled at year's end into the LABJ's resource – the annual Book of Lists.

In its 29th year of publication, the Los Angeles Business Journal is Los Angeles County's premier source for business news and analysis. Each week, the award-winning publication examines the many ways that the L.A. economy operates. First-rate editorial and research teams provide in-depth analyses of the community's ever-changing business and economic scene.

Environetics is a full-service interior architectural design and space-planning firm that specializes in creating unique work environments that improve employee productivity and enhance brand image. Environetics' diverse staff consists of space planners, architects, interior designers, LEED consultants, graphic and industrial designers, estimators and CAD drafters, all collaborating to identify client space needs and deliver interior plans for maximum effectiveness, efficiency and design.
